(prayer)

Isn't It Ironic? Don't You Think?

//

I know!

The linguistic purists like to point out that several of the examples used in Alanis Morisette's song do not technically count as irony.

It's like grain stored for a rainy day.
Then die asleep so that day never came.
The biggest barns; they all went to waste.
Who would've thought? It figures.

Isn't is ironic, don't you think?

//

Okay to think ahead and plan… but what is your goal… who benefits?

//

How much is enough?

Glass half full?

//

Money is not the root of all evil… the love of money is (Ecclesiastes, 1st Timothy)

Greed is the sin of extreme selfishness and "ignore"-ance.

Don't hoard compassion! Give it away.

Let us pray:

O God, help us to remember to use our days well: to enjoy your creation, to make other smile, to remember that you are with us always. Amen.
